PREFACE

We are immensely pleased to present this publication, created to celebrate the 70th birthday anniversary of Professor Leszek Mrozewicz, to our Esteemed Colleague and, naturally, the Readers.

Professor Mrozewicz's varied activities in the fields of science, popularization, and teaching – outlined in greater detail further on in this volume – translate into a substantial and admirable achievement in propagating the knowledge of Antiquity. The idea of publishing this commemorative volume, containing the findings of multi-aspectual inquiry into the history of ancient Greece and Rome gathered numerous researchers – colleagues, friends, and former students of the Professor. We are tremendously grateful to all Authors for their contribution in this undertaking.

As editors, we have made every effort to provide the essays and papers included here with uniform footnotes, lucid references and quality illustrations. However, we have decided to leave the manner of citing antique sources at the discretion of the Authors.

The volume would not have been compiled and published had it not been for the kind support and assistance of numerous persons. In particular, the Editors would like to thank Prof. Bogumiła Kaniewska, Her Magnificence the Rector of the Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań, Prof. Rafał Witkowski, Vice-Rector of the Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań, Prof. Józef Dobosz, Dean of the AMU Faculty of History, and Prof. Mateusz Jaeger, Director of the AMU Institute of European Culture for the financial support that made this volume a reality.

Expressions of gratitude are also due to Tomasz Budasz, Mayor of the City of Gniezno, who kindly supports publications of the AMU Institute of European Culture, and readily made funds available to carry this undertaking through.

We are also thankful to the reviewers, dr Florian Matei-Popescu from the Vasile Pârvan Institute of Archaeology, Romanian Academy in Bucharest, and Prof. Sławomir Sprawski from the Jagiellonian University in Krakow, for the effort that such numerous papers must have called for. We cannot fail to mention Prof. Krzysztof Nawotka, for his help in liaising with the Harrassowitz Publishing House. Also, we are indebted to Prof. Ignacy Lewandowski, author of the Latin dedication without which a volume in honour of such a consummate epigraphist would be incomplete.

We also thank Szymon Nowak for the translations into English and proofreading assistance, as well as Anna Dzionek and Ewa Gbur from the AMU Institute of European Culture for their invaluable support in administrative and organizational matters.

Together with the Authors we present this volume to Professor Leszek Mrozewicz, with our most sincere wishes of many more rewarding encounters with the Eternal Antiquity.
